

BEST CUTS OF PORTERHOUSE STEAK LB 12c 500 GENUINE LEGS LAMB LB 12c GENUINE LAMB CHOPS RIB AND LOIN LB 15c

SATURDAY'S SPECIALS AT BRIDGEPORT'S GREATEST PURE FOOD STORE

MEAT DEPT.

Prime Rib Roasts Lb 10-12c
Choice Veal Roasts Lb 10-12c
Fresh Dressed Fowl Lb 15c
Prepared English Mutton Lb 15c
Chops, something new Lb 15c
Spring Lamb Fores Lb 7c
Fresh Shoulder Clods Lb 9c
Sugar Cured Corned Beef Lb 5c
Fresh Cut Hamburger Lb 8c
Best Cuts Shoulder Steak Lb 9c

BAKERY DEPT.

Our Best Bread - 3c
Assorted Cookies - 8c
Large Nut Loaf Cakes each 15c
Buns, Rolls or Tea Biscuits 8c
Hot Baked Beans - qt 8c

BUTTER DEPT.

Fancy Table Butter Lb 28c
N. Y. S. Full Cream Cheese Lb 18c
Best Compound Lb 9c
Strictly Fresh Eggs doz 27c
Best Imported Swiss Cheese Lb 28c
Best Domestic Swiss Cheese Lb 20c

THE MOHICAN COMPANY

FRUIT DEPT.

Fancy California Malaga Grapes 10c lb, 3 lbs 25c
Native Peaches very fancy Qt 10c, 3 Qts 25c
English Walnut Meats Lb 29c
Large Ripe Bananas Doz 15c
Large Messina Lemons Doz 18c
Large Ripe Pineapples Each 8c

GROCERY DEPT.

Mohican Best Bread Flour sack 84c
Our Best Coffee 28c lb, 4 lbs $1.00
Bungalow Tea 1 lb pkge 29c
Mohican Chocolate 1/2 lb cake 14c
Mohican Cocoa 1/2 lb tin 15c
Pure Apple Butter 3 lbs 25c
Imp. Sardines in Olive Oil 3 for 25c
Mohican Pure Baking Powder lb 28c
Casco Bay Lobsters 1-2 lb can 19c
1 lb can 37c

WINES and LIQUORS

Private Stock Whiskey Qt 65c
Ramsays Scotch Whiskey Qt 80c
Medford Rum - Qt 70c
Her Majesty Old Tom Gin Qt 73c
Port or Sherry Wine - Qt 33c

Sports Of A Day

Told By The Farmer's Experts

BASEBALL SCORES

National League Standing

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Pittsburgh	81	45	.643
Chicago	76	41	.647
New York	76	49	.608
Cincinnati	65	61	.516
Philadelphia	64	67	.483
St. Louis	47	78	.376
Brooklyn	45	82	.354
Boston	34	93	.268

American League Standing

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Detroit	83	46	.643
Philadelphia	80	49	.620
Boston	76	55	.580
Cleveland	65	64	.504
Chicago	66	63	.512
New York	58	70	.453
St. Louis	52	75	.409
Washington	34	95	.264

Connecticut League Standing

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Hartford	73	44	.624
Holyoke	67	52	.563
New Britain	65	51	.562
Waterbury	64	59	.520
Springfield	58	62	.484
New Haven	58	66	.468
Northampton	52	67	.437
Bridgeport	44	77	.364

NATIONAL LEAGUE

After yesterday's games the National League pennant factors were the same distance apart. The Pittsburgh took the lead of the Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago stung the St. Louis Cardinals in a close clash. The Giants outstayed and beat their ancient rivals from Brooklyn, while the Phillies dealt a blow at Boston's pride by shutting the latter team out. The results:

New York 3, Brooklyn 5.
Pittsburgh 3, Cincinnati 1.
Chicago 3, St. Louis 1.
Philadelphia 3, Boston 0.

Games Today

Philadelphia at Boston.
Brooklyn at New York.
St. Louis at Chicago.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

The Highlanders finished up in Philadelphia yesterday by losing, their stay there this time netting them one game out of three. They will now visit Washington, then come home. The Athletics drew up closer to the Detroit, who were victims of rain. The White Sox and Browns played a tie and the Red Sox trimmed Washington. The results:

Philadelphia 11, New York 4.
Boston 2, Washington 1.
Chicago 1, St. Louis 1.
At Detroit—Rain.

Games Today

Boston at Philadelphia.
New York at Washington.
Cleveland at Detroit.
Chicago at St. Louis.

CONNECTICUT LEAGUE

That noise up in Waterbury yesterday was the loudest of the Orators' bats with all the balls the Authors could throw up. It was a terrible slaughter with the Orators doing the butchering. Hartford does not need to win the games so yesterday sent in a catcher to pitch and lost to Holyoke. New Britain settled third place by taking a double fall out of New Haven, which club went into sixth position, giving way to Springfield who trounced the Meadow Larks. The results:

Bridgeport 13, Waterbury 5.
New Britain 3, New Haven 2 (first game, 10 innings).
New Britain 10, New Haven 6 (second game, six innings).
Holyoke 7, Hartford 4.
Northampton 13, Springfield 6.

Games Today

Waterbury at Bridgeport.
Northampton at New Britain.
Springfield at Holyoke.
Standard at New Haven (two games).

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

GAMES FOR TOMORROW.

Brassies vs. Crane No. 1, Seaside Park, 2:15.
U. M. C. Co. vs. Warners, Newfield, 2:45.

A. & B. Co. vs. Crane No. 2, Crane Field, 2:15.
St. & B. Co. vs. Singers, Newfield, 2:00.

All out for the last games of the season.

The leaders are apt to run into a defeat, but a loss will not affect their standing.

Rumor has it that George Ellsworth was dropped from the Crane No. 1 management because he would not protest the game with the Brassies on July 31. Manager Stewart has now sent in a protest.

"Dutch" Richards looks good for the outfielders' cup. Both Hammer of Crane No. 2 and Steinmetz of the Singers are above him in the average but they have not played the requisite number of games. The league rules say that an outfielder must participate in at least 15 games as an outfielder and not as an infielder or a pitcher. Steinmetz has been in over 15 games but during that time has been a pitcher, during which time his averages will not count.

Notice that "Chucky" Franz is not playing catch any more? Wise youngsters at least ten games to be eligible for a cup. As it now stands "Chucky" has played in ten games and has all the other backstops wiped off the map. That's the reason he plays other positions, as in playing catch his average might be lowered.

An injustice has been done "Shorty" Ellwood of the Crane No. 2 team in the statement that he quits the game so that his batting might be above the others. Ellwood, if records speak rightly, has left but one game while the contest was in progress. The idea must have been given to the press by some informant who has something against Ellwood. "Shorty" should be given credit for his work this season, which is first class. Last year he was not much above the ordinary run of players, but matured this season.

The Holmes & Edwards crew has not won a single contest since their advent in the league. Yet they have played in some remarkable games their pitchers being of the first water.

There has been talk of arranging a series between the Champs and the deposed Champs to settle the question as to which is the better team. Which is the better has been demonstrated in the contests in which both clubs have played with each other.

The curtains will ring down on Saturday on the third successful season of the Industrial League of Bridgeport. Squabbles, which are only natural, have been in existence every year, but the league has always bettered in the end. Let's hope that 1916 will find the Industrial League bigger, better, longer and more harmonious than ever.

Why don't the management of the Crane No. 2 team get into contact with the manager of the Winchester of New Haven, the winners of the Elm City Industrial League, to decide the factory championship of both cities. It would be a money getter for the boys, besides furnishing excitement for the spectators in both cities.

Every team in the league with the exception of Crane No. 2, U. M. C. and Singers have had a change in management during the season. The latter club's manager does not work in that factory, but is retained because of his efficient work.

Should Crane No. 1 lose and Singers win this Saturday it will make both clubs tied for second place, which will

Semi-Professional Baseball

Manager Ed Lynch of the Yost team has arranged for a game tomorrow at Yost field with the strong Seymour club, contest to be called at 2:30 o'clock. The manager of the Seymours has promised to send down his strongest team with two of the best semi-professional pitchers in the State, Weeks and Gorham. Their backstop, Maloney, is also a catcher of repute, a number of the State League clubs having often tried to secure his services. Either White or Johnson will pitch for the Yosts, with Wilson on the receiving end. The lineup of the Seymours follows: Leyden, cf; Maloney, c; Weeks and Gorham, 1b; Weisiegel, lf; O'Donnell, 3b; Johnson, 2b; Bochardt, ss; and Grywacz, rf.

Manager O'Brien of the South Ends has arranged to play the last little Clover team, amateur champions of the city, at Crane field tomorrow at 1:30 o'clock. The contest to be preliminary to the Crane No. 2 and American & British Co. game.

The South Ends and Yosts after a great deal of dickering have gotten together and will play Sunday, Sept. 12, at Yost field. A scorching contest is due.

Have a care, all you would-be city and State champions, for the Thunderbolts will be in the field again this season with a team bigger and faster than ever. It looks like Tommy Dunigan for manager again, which means success. The club has already met and furthered plans for the season, but to still assure success there will be a meeting of all of last year's candidates, and all those who desire to try the team's outfit, Tuesday evening, Sept. 14, at the home of Manager Dunigan, 333 Brooks street.

The Edgewood Juniors are desirous of getting into the fray at once, and challenge the Bridgeport Juniors for a game Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Wheeler's lot. Looks as if the youngsters want to have the honor of tearing off the first contest of the year.

This evening, Friday, Sept. 10, is the meeting and reporting night of the Park Robin football club. Where? At Seaside grove. A flying start is looked for as a manager and captain will be chosen. Last season's men and new candidates are asked to show up at 7:30.

The Crescents, perhaps the fastest little team in the city, will reorganize this evening at a meeting to be held at Railroad and South avenues at 7:30 o'clock. Business of importance, besides the election of a manager and captain.

Practice this evening at 7:30 o'clock for the Yammigan Juniors, which club is due to take on any 100-105 pound team in the city.

Keep your eyes peeled for the Stratford Juniors are in the field with a team that will open the eyes of the natives of this city. The youngsters get together last evening and elected G. Frye captain and J. Murphy manager.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

WARNING.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

Do not be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for chronic coughs, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, and lung trouble, as it stops the cough and heals the lungs. F. B. Brill, local agent.

LOCOS LOSE LEAD

DIRECTORS DECIDE

Factory League Like Industrial League

Decides Pennant in Parlor Session

It's awful to be the leader, no matter what league you are a member of. The Yosts were the leaders in the Industrial League for a time, but probable cause of a flimsy nature was found against them and they were obliged to lose five games which virtually put them out of the running, as to win the pennant, should they remain in the organization, they would be obliged to win every contest.

Now comes the Factory League. The Locomobile team were the leaders all season, winning the majority of their contests, until a few weeks ago, when through the loss of their best players they began to lose games. Still the lead they had enjoyed was quite comfortable, and about enough to place them winners. The league season ended last Saturday and found the Locos and the Birdsey-Somers team tied for first place. Last evening the directors held one of these troublesome electric light sessions, and heard the protest of the Batcher team against the Locos team for using Pitcher O'Garra in the game of July 31st. Think of it, a game played over a month ago and protested only last evening. The directors declared the game forfeited to the Batcher club, though the Locos won the contest 11-1.

It was brought out at the meeting that Pitcher O'Garra did not work at the loco factory during the latter part of July, though he was an employee before and after.

Now that Batcher and Birdsey-Somers are in a tie the mix-up will be played at Seaside Park tomorrow. The standing of the clubs as arranged last evening follows:

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Birdsey-Somers Co.	12	3	.800
Batcher & Co.	12	3	.800
Locomobile Co.	11	4	.733
Hartford T. Co.	4	4	.443
Jennings Bros.	2	13	.133
Ascroft Co.	1	14	.067

The Cubs are only five games behind the Pirates and fire to catch the latter before the season closes. The two teams concluded their series in Pittsburgh on Wednesday, but they have three more games in Chicago later on, which will have considerable bearing on the pennant winner.

Officials of the Chicago Cubs say they are going to make formal charges against Umpire Klem for making the alleged statement on a train from Chicago to St. Louis that he intended to get several of the champions. They insist that he carried out his threat in Tuesday's game when he fired Tinker and Chance, thus enabling Pittsburgh to win the contest.

Nothing to Offer.

"Have you," asked the judge of a recently convicted man, "anything to offer the court before sentence is passed?"

"No, your honor," replied the prisoner. "My lawyer took my last farthing."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

was tendered a dinner by a number of fans in the evening. Manager Hogan was presented by the team's owners with a purse of $500, and each player received a gold watch suitably engraved. Among the lucky receivers were Jack Deal and Butch Remeter, both former members of the Holyoke club.

The Boston American and New York National League managements are considering a plan to have the Giants and Red Sox play a best of seven series, providing each team finishes third in its respective league.

According to the New York Press President Taylor of the Boston Americans is quoted as follows: "In my opinion Pitcher Fisher of Hartford is the best minor league twirler in the country. Even though he has not pitched a major league game, I am willing to take him off the New York club's hands at twice what they paid for him."

Joe O'Rourke, formerly with Waterbury, then St. Louis Nationals, Columbus American Association, and now Lynn of the New England League, is due to be with the Little Rock club of the South League next season.

The Red Sox at last managed to win a game. Although they have still a look-in at the pennant, they will have to travel at a mighty swift pace to carry off the title. And that's why they are called the Speed Boys.

Unless Honus Wagner gets onto himself within the next few weeks there will be another leader in the batting list. The National League phenom has been rather peevish of late, his batting average suffering.

Manager O'Rourke stated this morning that the Pirates and Fire to catch the latter before the season closes. The two teams concluded their series in Pittsburgh on Wednesday, but they have three more games in Chicago later on, which will have considerable bearing on the pennant winner.

Officials of the Chicago Cubs say they are going to make formal charges against Umpire Klem for making the alleged statement on a train from Chicago to St. Louis that he intended to get several of the champions. They insist that he carried out his threat in Tuesday's game when he fired Tinker and Chance, thus enabling Pittsburgh to win the contest.

Nothing to Offer.

"Have you," asked the judge of a recently convicted man, "anything to offer the court before sentence is passed?"

"No, your honor," replied the prisoner. "My lawyer took my last farthing."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

son might make a good monologue man in a minstrel show, for he spent most of the time he was supposed to be "attending to his knitting" in "kidding" the witnesses, not whipping Kaufman.

Kaufman, on the other hand, was absolutely powerless, landing by actual count, five blows on the giant black.

The fight fans evidently knew what to expect, for there was only a corporal's guard in attendance, and before the ten rounds were over a majority of them, disgusted, had left. Those who remained spent their time jeering the fighters. Johnson showed no evidence of having trained at all for the go.

By Igoe.

Once more Jack Johnson has got by a tough customer through his ability to merely cut the ears of his adversary and when pressed, to fall back on a system of defensive boxing that no big man of the ring ever equaled. It was like handling Johnson's end of the money on a silver platter. At the outset, Kaufman seemed to have one chance in a hundred of landing a wallop on Johnson's "golden smile."

After they had made a few passes Al's chances drifted into the 1,000 to 1 class.

A long fight would have been another story. Artha was clearly blown at the end. It was the natural result of his recent gay living. But Johnson is a big duck for a fighter. He knew that he could go ten rounds with any man alive, and he made good. Kaufman is a wiser man now and all of old Billy Delaney's warnings came true. His chance lay in a mill of Marathon length. Easy come and easy go with Johnson nowadays.

What is Circumstantial Evidence.

Nothing to Offer.

"Have you," asked the judge of a recently convicted man, "anything to offer the court before sentence is passed?"

"No, your honor," replied the prisoner. "My lawyer took my last farthing."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied the near famous bard. "We've got more sense than to queer the game in that manner."

Wise Poets.

"Do poets ever write poems in their letters to their sweethearts?" asked the sweet young thing.

"No," replied